

In English we will:

Examine Kenning poems and write our very own based on animals of our choice.

Use 'who' and 'ing' clauses to make our writing more exciting.

Begin to examine the features of a fable.

In History we will:

Learn who the Romans were, why they invaded Britain and how they kept control of such a vast empire.

Research what cities and towns were like in Roman Britain.

In Maths we will:

Continue to learn written multiplication methods and evaluate their efficiency for varying problems.

Learn new written methods to solve division problems.

Add and subtract money.

In Science we will:

Recognise how light is reflected.

Understand how shadows are created and what causes them to change.

Learn and use the keywords transparent, translucent and opaque.

In RE we will:

Begin our topic on Lent and reflect on the new life it brings.

Examine the story of the Widow of Nain.

Reflect on what we are called to do during Lent.

In PE we will:

Learn a variety of swimming skills.

Study cricket techniques,

Begin to play cricket matches and develop our teamwork skills.

In Computing we will:

Examine a variety of stop-motion animations and develop our understanding on how they can be created.

Create our own stop-motion animation video themed around the Romans.

In French we will:

Recap basic French greetings.

Learn the names of a variety of fruits and vegetables.

